

How to Make a Title IX report/complaint:

NWU empowers harmed parties to decide how to proceed. Title IX reports only become complaints when the harmed party decides, or NWU determines potential for imminent harm or ongoing threat to the campus community.

Contact a Title IX coordinator to make a Title IX report/complaint and request accommodations, which includes pregnancy-related conditions:

Natasha Moreno

nmoreno@nebrwesleyan.edu or titleix@nebrwesleyan.edu
402.465.2356

Maria Harder

mharder@nebrwesleyan.edu
402.465.2117

Anonymous reporting

Make an anonymous report using the "Report a Concern" link at the bottom of every NWU webpage. Insufficient details may limit NWU's ability to respond.

For emergencies

- Call 911
- Campus Security / 402.432.9238
- On-Call RECs / 402.601.2114

Confidential resources

- Campus Advocate (students, employees)
402.465.2533
  - Campus Minister (students, employees)
402.465.2398
  - Counseling Services (undergraduate students)
402.465.2464
  - Directions EAP (employees)
402.434.2900
  - Voices Of Hope (students, employees)
402.475.7273 (24/7 Support)
-

For more information related to sex discrimination and sex-based harassment (Title IX), talk with a Title IX coordinator or visit NWU's Title IX webpage:

